

BOARD RESOLUTION NO. 14

Series of 2026

A Resolution Approving and Endorsing the Proposal for the Reorganization and Centralized Coordination of Student Organizations of Quezon City University, for Submission to the Appropriate University Authorities

WHEREAS, Quezon City University recognizes the role of student organizations in advancing student leadership, engagement, academic development, and community involvement;

WHEREAS, the increasing number and varied functions of recognized student organizations require a clear and coordinated system for communication, administration, and implementation of student activities;

WHEREAS, the proposed reorganization seeks to establish a centralized coordination framework that will provide clear channels of communication between student organizations and the appropriate University offices;

WHEREAS, centralized coordination can improve activity scheduling, prevent unnecessary duplication of programs, facilitate proper use of university resources, and strengthen organizational accountability;

WHEREAS, the proposed framework shall promote collaboration among recognized student organizations while maintaining their respective mandates, functions, and organizational identities;

WHEREAS, the reorganization shall be developed and implemented in consultation with concerned student organizations and appropriate University offices to ensure that the system is practical, transparent, and consistent with existing University policies;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROPOSED, that Quezon City University approve and endorse the Proposal for the Reorganization and Centralized Coordination of Student Organizations for submission to and consideration by the appropriate University authorities;

PROPOSED FURTHER, that the proposed framework establish clear procedures for organizational coordination, communication, activity scheduling, documentation, and submission of required reports and other organizational requirements;

PROPOSED FURTHER, that the appropriate University offices coordinate with recognized student organizations in developing the guidelines and mechanisms necessary for the effective implementation of the proposed system;

PROPOSED FURTHER, that the implementation of the proposed framework shall respect the respective mandates and legitimate functions of recognized student organizations while ensuring compliance with university rules and regulations;

WITNESS OUR HANDS this 22nd day of March, 2026, Quezon City, Philippines.

PROPOSED FINALLY, that this Resolution shall take effect immediately upon its approval by the appropriate authorities of Quezon City University.
